Dear Mr. Ramanathan

Lately, as you the High Court has seen. murderers by ap. imprisonment or acting Dewans or have kept, or some position, & the persecution is on Brahmins & Brahmins in order that they may be no difficulty in maintaining that the Fortino community party who then came in confirmation comes I can find that if we take the whole number of permanent Bailiffs, exclude 2, who are provincially permanent

as Subordinate Judges, add those acting as Bailiffs (who may expect to be confirmed

in this case) the number of non-Brahmins is equal to the number of Brahmins would you kindly let me know whether it would be in accordance with the policy of the Government, now that that stage has been reached, for the High Court when recommending new men for future
acting appointments
make the proportion 2 non-Brahmins to 1 Brahmin.
Even that of adopted

would continually vacate in the ranks of District Judges, Subordinate Judges & Munsiffs containing twice as many non-Brahmins as Brahmins.

Yours sincerely
